THREE SCORE YEARS

SARAH BERNHARDT IS YET A GREAT ACTRESS.

Her Childhood Was Remarkable for a Violent Temper and Great Precocity in Dramatic Studies—Made Her Debut Forty-Two Years Ago. But Success Came Slowly to Her—Dreaded Criticism and Preferred Financial Loss.

Paris, Oct. 22.—It seems difficult to realize that Mme Bernhardt, the "Divine Sarah," who has just returned from a most triumphant engagement in London, is three score years old. Such is the fact, however, the great actress having first seen the light of day just 60 years ago today at 5 Rue de L'Ecole de Medicine, in this city. Her mother was a Jewess, who had migrated to Paris from Berlin. Her grandfather was an optician of Amsterdam, and there she spent her earliest childhood.

At a convent at Versailles, where she was sent at the age of 7, she became notorious for the violence of her temper. In 1859 she entered the Paris conservatoire and became a pupil of Provost and Samson. In two years she gained the second prize for tragedy, and the next year the same for comedy.

On August 11, 1862, she made her debut at the Theater Francaise in "Iphigenie." To Francisque Sarcey is due the credit of discovering Sarah Bernhardt's talent. When all other critics were silent he announced that though her acting was that of a school girl, her elocution was perfect. She was eight months at the Comedie Francaise, when she boxed the ears of Mile. Nathalie, her senior, and left for other fields. Her first real success was in 1869, when she appeared at the Florentine page in "Le Passant."

During the siege of Paris she worked untiringly with the Odeon ambulance and shortly after returning to the stage achieved a veritable triumph as the queen in "Ruy Blas." Thereafter managers were at her feet. When Bernhardt first went to London, in 1879, she was adversely criticized, once for being unable to play her part, and again for presenting a defective Clorinde, a part she disliked. She retired to her country house and paid $20,000 for breach of contract rather than be criticized again.

FOR BETTER MARKSMEN.

National Board Will Ask for $5,000,000 Appropriation.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 22.—A meeting of the national board for the promotion of rifle practice was held today at the war department. In addition to approving the awards made at the recent shoot for the national trophy at Fort Riley, the meeting discussed several matters which it intends to bring before the coming session of congress.

These matters relate to the plans of the board for the formation of a national marksmen's reserve, including the encouragement of rifle practice in the state militia, in military and other schools, and among individuals. As a first step in this direction the board desires an appropriation of $1,000,000 per annum for five years to be expended under the direction of the secretary of war for the providing of ranges, their equipment and maintenance.

WILL RENT A ROOM.

North Side School Will Be Held in Academy Building.

The city school board will rent a room in Pendleton academy for the use of the north side patrons for the coming year, or at least pending the completion of the new north side school house.

The room agreed upon is the southeast room, next northward from the office room, on the first floor. It will seat comfortably 40 pupils, and is a very pleasant and suitable apartment.

For the use of this room the district will pay $30 per month, which includes janitoring and heating, and the academy board fits the room up in every detail, ready for use.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Slipper Sale.

THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE.

Think of the advantage of having a hospital, with every modern and up-to-date convenience. There is no telling which of us will next need it. We will be saved the expense and trouble of going somewhere else. Pendleton has to thank the Sisters of St. Francis, who by their energies in planning, constructing and furnishing it. It is a credit to Pendleton and Umatilla county. The very least we can do is to patronize their fair, which will be in the new Bowman building every evening next week, excepting Monday. There will be plenty of music.

HIGH CLASS DRUGGISTS AND — OTHERS.

The better class of druggists, everywhere, are men of scientific attainments and high integrity, who devote their lives to the welfare of their fellow men in supplying the best of remedies and purest medicinal agents of known value, in accordance with physicians' prescriptions and scientific formula. Druggists of the better class manufacture many excellent remedies, but always under original or official names and they never sell false brands, or imitation medicines. They are the men to deal with when in need of anything in their line, which usually includes all standard remedies and corresponding adjuncts of a first-class pharmacy and the finest and best of toilet articles and preparations and many useful accessories and remedial appliances. The earning of a fair living, with the satisfaction which arises from a knowledge of the benefits conferred upon their patrons and assistance to the medical profession, is usually their greatest reward for long years of study and many hours of daily toil. They all know that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative remedy and that it gives universal satisfaction, and therefore they are selling many millions of bottles annually to the well informed purchasers of the choicest remedies, and they always take pleasure in handing out the genuine article bearing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package. They know that in cases of colds and headaches attended by biliousness and constipation and of weakness or torpidity of the liver and bowels, arising from irregular habits, indigestion, or over-eating, that there is no other remedy so pleasant, prompt and beneficial in its effects as Syrup of Figs, and they are glad to sell it because it gives universal satisfaction.

Owing to the excellence of Syrup of Figs, the universal satisfaction which it gives and the immense demand for it, imitations have been made, tried and condemned, but there are individual druggists to be found, here and there, who do not maintain the dignity and principles of the profession and whose greed gets the better of their judgment, and who do not hesitate to recommend and try to sell the imitations in order to make a larger profit. Such preparations sometimes have the name—"Syrup of Figs"—or "Fig Syrup"—and of some piratical concern, or fictitious fig syrup company, printed on the package, but they never have the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of the package. The imitations should be rejected because they are injurious to the system. In order to sell the imitations they find it necessary to resort to misrepresentation or deception, and whenever a dealer passes off on a customer a preparation under the name of "Syrup of Figs" or "Fig Syrup," which does not bear the full name of the California Fig Syrup Co. printed on the front of the package, he is attempting to deceive and mislead the patron who has been so unfortunate as to enter his establishment, whether it be large or small, for if the dealer resorts to misrepresentation and deception in one case he will do so with other medicinal agents, and in the filling of physicians' prescriptions, and should be avoided by every one who values health and happiness. Knowing that the great majority of druggists are reliable, we supply the immense demand for our excellent remedy entirely through the druggists, of whom it may be purchased everywhere, in original packages only, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, but as exceptions exist it is necessary to inform the public of the facts, in order that all may decline or return any imitation which may be sold to them. If it does not bear the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, do not hesitate to return the article and to demand the return of your money, and in future go to one of the better class of druggists who will sell you what you wish and the best of everything in his line at reasonable prices.

BOWMAN'S FURNISHINGS.

Rooms in New Hotel to Be Fitted Up
With First-Class Goods.

Purl Bowman has returned from Portland, and two carloads of furniture for the Bowman block have already arrived, and more is coming immediately. The entire outfit, bought with every advantage taken of the Portland markets, cost nearly $5000, and only the second floor will be fitted up at this time.

The carpets come sewed, and numbered for the rooms in which it will be laid. They are all Axminsters, velvets and tapestries, the latter Roxburys and 10-wire goods.

The furniture is all either birdseye maple, or golden oak, and in every one of the 41 bedrooms will be a princess dresser. Every bedstead in the building will be of bronzed iron.

The linoleum will be all "B" grade, and better, it is said, than any ever regularly kept in stock here. All of the furnishings were selected with the aid of M. A. Rader, who accompanied Mr. Bowman to Portland, and they come consigned to Mr. Rader's house.

The intention is to have the house ready for use by November 1.

After all the furnishings have been put in, B. W. Levens, the Baker City man who runs hotels at Baker City and Sumpter, will come to Pendleton and inspect the layout. In the event of the failure of Mr. Levens and Mr. Bowman coming to terms, Mr. Bowman will proceed to open the house, perhaps under his own personal management.
